The End: It Will Take Place

REVELATION 22:11 NASB – (11) Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and the one who is holy, still keep himself holy."

One of the biggest challenges I face is knowing that not many are sharing the truth about Christ. The Discipleship process does not seem to be in affect as should be. People are living any kind of way and I see it, but all I can do is judge myself. Yes, the Bible says judge the fruits of all, but be careful you don't fall in the category of being a hypocrite. No one wants to hear the fact that one day "The End: It Will Take Place." Many leaders are afraid to discuss the book of "Revelation." It is a book about victory! So why are they afraid to talk about the book? Because in it "The End: It Will Take Place." Jesus reminded me of three things I needed to know about this walk called life.

Many will claim to care, but their actions will not show it. Instead they will be too busy trying to impress people through their schemes.

There are positive and negative consequences in life. We cannot control the consequences for our wrong doings. It will take place. "You Reap What You Sow."

Life is about choice. Intelligently choose what is right and what is best!

MATTHEW 25:32-33 NASB – (32) All the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, as the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats; (33) and He will put the sheep on His right, and the goats on the left.

Jesus reminded me that He knows everything , for nothing can be and will not be hidden!

HEBREWS 9:27 KJV – (27) And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:
