All Have Fallen Short

ROMANS 3:23 NKJV – (23) for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

This is a pivotal doctrine of Scripture. Jesus only came to save sinners (1Timothy1:15). Acknowledging sin leads to salvation. Romans 4:5 says that God justifies the ungodly. Admitting ungodliness leads to salvation. However, true salvation requires more of God's people. All people have had the sacrificial offering of Jesus made for their sins by grace (1Timothy 4:10 and 1John 2:2), but grace alone does not save. People must put their faith in what God has provided for them by grace (Ephesians 2:8). Although the price has been paid for the sins of the whole world, only those who receive it by faith will benefit from the salvation that Jesus offers. IN ALL WE DO, WE MUST ALWAYS INTELLIGENTLY CHOOSE CHRIST!!
