WEEKLY MINISTRY MEDITATIONS

Pronounced "Soul"

Choose, Don't Vote

I am sure the democratic primary between Barack Obama and Hillary Clinton has many people at the edge of their seat. Many are looking for history in this election. Will the United States have a black man or a woman for president for the first time? Is it possible to have them both in the White House as president and vice president? What ever the results are, I am sure he or she will do their best. I am sure, we as a people will vote for the one who we believe is the best candidate.

I was just thinking Christ is not a candidate, but if He was (hmmmm). He has been in existence before the beginning of time. No one will win against him! He has awesome support! He has a record consisting of healings, miracles, etc. I am going to stop there because the truth is; I do not have enough space to identify what our Father has done for us. With Christ, you can sleep all night and know you are covered with peace! When we make a mistake, He does not criticize. He has mercy on us! He makes promises and has never lied about them because He is a God that cannot and will not lie!

He has our best interest!!!!!!

Why is it so many people refuse to vote for him? Why is it so many act as if they support Him and really do not? Maybe it is because He cannot be voted for; instead, we must choose "The One" who runs this universe (not country). Despite the horrible ways we have treated Him, He still gives us the perfect plan.

All the leaders in this world will do their best or some will be down right evil, no matter what Christ was the answer before, He is the answer now and until the end of time! What has He done for you? Take time to ponder on that question and then choose, not vote.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Maturity is the art of living in peace with that which we cannot change, the courage to change that which should be changed - and the wisdom to know the difference.
