WEEKLY MINISTRY MEDITATIONS

"A JOURNEY OF THE HEART"

A celebration in the making

January 1, 2018

EXODUS 12:14 NKJV – (14) ‘So this day shall be to you a memorial; and you shall keep it as a feast to the LORD throughout your generations. You shall keep it as a feast by an everlasting ordinance.

It is not just this day the people will observe, but seven days (vs. 15-20). They will open the seven-day observance with a solemn assembly and close it with a second solemn assembly. During the seven days, they will abstain from work, purge their homes of leaven, and eat unleavened bread. They will continue this commemoration as a “perpetual ordinance” (vs. 17). Having created people, Yahweh knows that they forget easily. This annual observance is to keep the Passover fresh in Israel’s memory—to remind Israel of its origins and of Yahweh’s providential care.

On this day also, SOHLMEDITATIONS is celebrating 10 years of non-stop ministry - meeting its purpose according to our Vision - For we are His workmanship, "created in Christ Jesus" for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them (Ephesians 2:10) and Mission - sowing a seed "the word of God" into the hearts of men and women that will propel them to their God-given destiny.

I pray that the words written in all meditations have been an impact in your daily walk of life and that you will continue to strive to deepen your relationship with God. Happy New Year and blessings to you in purpose and (Spiritual) prosperity in 2018.
