What Is His Death Worth?

JOHN 3:16 KJV – (16) For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Babe Ruth's 1920 New York Yankees' jersey is predicted to sell for a record sum. The 92-year-old professional-grade wool flannel jersey has enough soiling, stains and fabric repairs to establish that its owner tumbled after fly balls and slid into second base. More often he trotted around the bases in his signature choppy steps. The Y in the words "NEW YORK" is embroidered on the double-thick button placket, proof to experts that the road jersey was made circa 1920. Here it is 2012, and the jersey endures as a memento of a life and a time etched deeply in Americana. It was privately owned for decades and made public at the Babe Ruth Museum in Baltimore from 2004 to 2009. It then was sold to a collector, who in late April will put the jersey up for auction. Experts say the price ought to exceed the $2.8 million paid in 2007 for a pristine T-206 Honus Wagner tobacco baseball card. But memorabilia experts say nothing captures the imagination – and opens the checkbooks – of collectors like Babe Ruth. The bat Ruth used to hit a home run in the first game at Yankee Stadium, on opening day in 1923, sold for almost $1.3 million in 2006.

What Is His Death Worth? He died for our sins at His expense. To make sure we have everlasting life. We did not pay for nothing!!!!!!!!!!!! What Is His Death Worth? What is His death worth to you? In the paragraph above, we will pay millions for a shirt or bat. What about the death of Christ?

He died so you and I can live. We can never pay Him back, but we could surely show the gratitude! If you haven't accepted Christ as your personal Lord and Savior, do it now. Make the right choice and then ask Him to give your life direction.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

You don't know Christ, until you know His worth.
