WEEKLY MINISTRY MEDITATIONS

Pronounced "Soul"

February 21, 2011

A Brighter Day is Coming

PSALM 30:5 NASB - (5) For His anger is but for a moment, His favor is for a lifetime; Weeping may last for the night, But a shout of joy comes in the morning.

Ministry can be challenging and there will be times when you will shed tears due to what you see going on in the world. Sometimes you feel like you are not accomplishing anything. People treat you as if you are nothing!. It can really beat you down physically, mentally and sometimes spiritually. The thing that helps me is remembering that who I am and who's I am! Prayer is the key especially for those who treat you incorrectly. Before I go to bed and when I get up, I simply tell Him thank you because I have already won and regardless what I may go through, I will not complain! Remember, you have a purpose for being here another day. Serve Christ wholeheartedly! So when you are down, get up and dust yourself off! "A Brighter Day Is Coming."

Never forget the great things the Lord has done for us, both by his wisdom and by his grace, bind us in gratitude to do all we can to advance his kingdom among men, though the most we can do is but little. God's saints in heaven sing to him; why should not those on earth do the same? Not one of all God's perfections carries in it more terror to the wicked, or more comfort to the godly, than his holiness. It is a good sign that we are in some measure partakers of his holiness, if we can wholeheartedly rejoice at the remembrance of it. Our happiness is bound up in the Divine favor; if we have that, we have enough, whatever else we want; but as long as God's anger continues, so long the saints' weeping continues.
