He's Always Thinking Of Me

PSALMS 139:17-18 NLT – (17) How precious are your thoughts about me, O God. They cannot be numbered! (18) I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand! And when I wake up, you are still with me!

Thoughts are natural to the Creator, the Preserver, the Redeemer, the Father, the Friend, are evermore flowing from the heart of the Lord. Thoughts of our pardon, renewal, upholding, supplying, educating, perfecting, and a thousand more continuously swell up in the mind of the Most High. It should fill us with adoring wonder and reverent surprise that the infinite mind of God should turn so many thoughts towards us who are so insignificant and so unworthy!

Verse 18 shows the thoughts of God to be altogether uncountable for, nothing can surpass in number the grains of sand which belt the main ocean and all the minor seas. The task of counting God's thoughts of love would be a never ending one. If we should attempt to reckon, we would fail for the infinite falls not within the line of our weak intelligence. Even if we could count the sands on the seashore, we still would not be able to number God's thoughts, for they are "more in number than the sand.

The above verse is just one of many verses that demonstrate His love for His people and if that is not enough, read one more, 2 PETER 3:9.
